

ENNISCRONE Seaweed Festival

16th, 17th and 18th September 2011

PROGRAMME: ENNISCRONE SEAWEED FESTIVAL 2011

Sunday 11th September

Ocean Sands Hotel 2.30pm

Two arts workshops for children (one for primary and one for secondary) using seaweed as an art material, led by an artist.

Saturday 17th September

Kilcullen's Seaweed Baths 11.00am

A technical Seaweed Talk by Irish Seaweed Research Group, Ryan Institute, NUI Galway.
Admission is free

Saturday 17th September

Diamond Coast Hotel 2.30pm

Seaweed Cookery Demonstration by Dr. Prannie Rhatigan – author of “Irish Seaweed Kitchen” – the comprehensive guide to healthy everyday cooking with seaweeds.
Admission €5

Sunday 18th September

Waterfront House 11.00am - 6.00pm

Display of seaweed products including dried seaweed, soaps, hair products, cosmetics etc. There will also be a display of wet seaweed.

Admission is free

Waterfront House 2.30pm

Talk entitled “Seaweeds and enterprise, how to start a seaweed business” by Dr. Stefan Kraan, Director and Co-Founder, Ocean Harvest Technology Ltd., Tuam, Co. Galway.

Throughout the week-end

All hotels and restaurants will feature at least one seaweed dish on their menus.

Local shops will display the art posters produced by the local school children, where seaweed was used as an art material.

For more information on the Enniscrone Seaweed Festival contact info@darlington.ie

ENNISCRONE
Seaweed
Festival

